

the
International Students of History Association
presents:

Student History Conference 2010 'Integration throughout History' Helsinki, April 5th—11th, 2010

ISHA International Secretariat
c/o Frerik Kampman
Ameland 197
3524 AN Utrecht
The Netherlands

contact@isha-international.org

February 2010, Utrecht, The Netherlands

Dear history student,

I kindly invite you to attend the Annual Conference 2010 of the International Students of History Association (ISHA). This Conference is organized by and for history students, and will take place from 5 to 11 April 2010 in Helsinki, Finland.

ISHA is an international student organization that brings together students of history to encourage an international approach of history. During the year seminars are organized on specific themes. The Annual Conference is the central event of the year, welcoming 100 students from different parts of Europe.

The Conference has the theme 'Integration throughout History', which will be discussed in workshops with the following themes: Economic Integration, Cultural Integration, Social Integration, European Integration, Political and Ideological Integration, Global Integration, Gender and Integration, Integration and Minorities, Conflicts and Integration. Participants are asked to give a presentation within the themes of the workshops.

An impression of the program:

Monday, April 5th:	Arrivals and introduction, 'ice-breaking'.
Tuesday, April 6th:	Opening of the Conference, Workshops, sightseeing.
Wednesday, April 7th:	Workshops, Discussion with teachers, visit to fortress 'Suomenlinna'.
Thursday, April 8th:	Workshops, General Assembly.
Friday, April 9th:	Workshops, Closing Ceremony, Concluding Round Table Discussion, Sauna.
Saturday, April 10th:	Day Trip to historical sight in Southern Finland.
Sunday, April 11th:	Departures.

The academic part of the Conference is during the day. Outside of the academic program social and cultural gatherings are organized. The participation fee will be € 100, including the meals, accommodation and day trips. Travelling to and from Helsinki is at own cost.

Application for this Conference takes place from the 8th to the 22nd of February through the official conference website at <http://ishahelsinkiconference.nettisivu.org>. Here you will also find the latest information. Feel free to contact ISHA for more information.

Yours faithfully,

Frerik Kampman
President of ISHA 2009-2010

