

CLIOHWORLD
Sixth Plenary Conference and Working Meeting
Universidade Nova, FCSH, Lisbon, 17-18 June 2011

“Europe, the European Union and the Wider World: Guidelines and Reference Points for History Programmes”

Friday, 17 June 2011

Venue: Universidade Nova, Faculdade de Ciências Sociais e Humanas (FCSH)/
Nova University of Lisbon, Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities
Tower B,
Avenida de Berna 26-C Lisbon

9:00 Registration

Opening Plenary Session

9:30 Welcomes

Amélia Andrade, CLIOHWORLD Coordinator, and Vice Dean of the FCSH for Internationalization, Universidade Nova, Lisbon

Francisco Caramelo, Vice Dean of the FCSH for students, representative of the History Department

João Sàágua, Dean of the Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities

Ann Katherine Isaacs (University of Pisa), Guðmundur Hálfðanarson (University of Iceland), CLIOHWORLD co-coordinators

António Bensabat Rendas, Rector, Universidade Nova, Lisbon

9:45 Cátia Antunes, University of Leiden:

‘The Rise of the West’, the ‘Great Divergence’ and ‘Historical Globalization’: fashion statement or poor variations on the same theme?

10:10 Jessica Hallett, Universidade Nova de Lisboa, FCSH/CHAM (Centro de História de Além-Mar/Centre for Overseas History):

All his Worldly Possessions: Geography and Space in the collections of the 5th Duke of Bragança, 1563

10:45 Coffee break

11:10 Round Table:

The 5 CLIOHWORLD Working Groups will present their results and products: Guidelines and reference points, Readers, Reports and other materials

Sven Mörsdorf, Vice President, International Students of History Association: ISHA's Collaboration with CLIOHWORLD: the Pula Reader and Conference

Moderator and summing up: Jonathan Osmond, Pro-Vice Chancellor, Cardiff University, Chair, Tuning History Validation committee, CLIOHWORLD external expert

12:40 Award of the CLIOHWORLD Quality Labels

13:00 Lunch

Afternoon Plenary Session: "Taking a closer look at History and knowledge transfer in a global context"

14:15 Antonis Liakos, University of Athens, President of the International Committee for Cultural History:

Historical Culture: the Responsibilities of Historians

14:40 Maria Efthymiou, University of Athens

Presenting History in different Lifelong Learning context

15:05 Marco A. Velázquez Albo, member of the Tuning Latin America History Subject Area Group, Dean of the Faculty of History, Benemérita Universidad Autónoma de Puebla, Mexico, CLIOHWORLD external expert

Learning and teaching history: a Latin American perspective

15:30 Discussion

16:00 Coffee break

16:30 Working group sessions

Among the aspects to be discussed:

- Road map for future dissemination of overall CLIOHWORLD results and Work-plan
- Elaboration of Degree profiles using the new CoRe 2 Guidelines
- Possible 'atlas' of CLIOHWORLD History programmes
- Survey of national requirements for accessing History Programmes in Higher Education (national level) and using HUMART country report templates
- LLL strategies

Saturday, 18 June 2011

9:00 Working group sessions continuing

Group 3 will circulate through all the other groups trying to help with dissemination strategies (podcast/you tube/wiki entries)

10:45 Coffee break

11:15 work group continuing (writing the reports)

13:00 Lunch

14:15 Meeting resumes: Final Plenary Session

WG Reports and discussion

Decisions on remaining issues

16:00 coffee break

16:30 CLIOHWORLD Consortium Meeting; HEKLA Assembly

18:00 meeting closes

Sunday, 19 June 2011

Departure