

“Creating a New Historical Perspective: Europe and the Wider World”
(1 October 2008-31 September 2011)

CLIOHWORLD is an Erasmus Academic Network for Higher Education, supported by the European Commission through the Lifelong Learning Programme of its Directorate General Education and Culture.

It promotes innovation and quality in the learning and teaching of European History in a world and global context, of the History of European Integration, of the History of the European Union itself and of Regional and Transnational History.

Take another look!
There's something new in European History

Members: 60 Universities in 31 countries, plus 9 Associate partners, amongst which ISHA, the International Students of History Association.

Working Groups:

1. European Union and European Integration History
2. World History, Global History and Periodisation
3. E-Learning and Digitalisation
4. Developing EU-Turkey Dialogue
5. Regional and Transnational History

Commissions:

1. Quality Initiative: tools for developing the quality of History Programmes; award of the CLIOHWORLD Quality Label
2. Lifelong Learning: materials for History Programmes for learners of all ages

Related projects:

CLIOHRES.net: an FP6 Network of Excellence for research on History and Citizenship

ENGLOBE: a Marie Curie Initial Training Network, linking the Enlightenment with Globalisation

CoRe2: Guidelines for elaborating Degree Profiles

HUMART: Developing a Sectoral Qualifications Framework for the Humanities